ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

DEFINITIONS

1. For purposes of this Order (the “Final Order”), the Court adopts and incorporates the definitions contained in the Stipulation. Any inconsistencies between the Stipulation and the Notice will be controlled by the language of the Stipulation.

JURISDICTION

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Litigation, and all actions within the Litigation and/or related to the Litigation, and over all Parties to the Litigation including all members of the Settlement Class.

NO ADMISSION OR EVIDENCE OF LIABILITY

3. This Court hereby decrees that neither the Stipulation, nor this Final Order, is an admission or evidence of any violation of any statute or law or of any liability or wrongdoing by the Defendants or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations alleged in the Litigation or in any other proceeding. The Stipulation, and any and all negotiations, documents, and discussions associated with it, shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or evidence of any violation of any statute or law or of any liability or wrongdoing by Plaintiffs, or any of the Defendants, or of any alleged defense, or of the absence of any wrongdoing or limitations of damage or injury, and evidence thereof shall not be discoverable or used directly or indirectly, in any way, by any person, in any other proceeding.

FINALIZATION OF PRELIMINARY FINDINGS

4. The Court makes final and unconditional the conditional and preliminary findings made by the Court regarding the Stipulation terms in the Preliminary Approval Order and the Amended Preliminary Approval Order.

NOTICE

5. The Court finds that the Notice of Settlement of the Litigation was given in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order, and that such Notice was reasonable and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituted valid, due and sufficient notice to all members of the Settlement Class, and complied fully with the requirements of due process, federal law including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the Constitution of the United States, and any other applicable law.

APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

6. The Court has previously certified this case as a Class Action. For the purposes of this Settlement only, the definition of the Class is amended and is defined as “all current and former participants and beneficiaries of the Plans, other than Defendants, for whose individual accounts the Plans purchased and/or held shares of the Merck Common Stock Fund during the Class Period.”

7. This Court hereby approves the Stipulation as being a fair, reasonable and adequate settlement and compromise of the Litigation in accordance with all applicable laws, including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and directs that the Stipulation be consummated and implemented in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

8. This Court further finds that the Stipulation has been entered into and made in good faith, and that Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have fairly and adequately represented the interests of the Settlement Class in connection with the Litigation and the Stipulation.

9. An independent fiduciary has evaluated the fairness of the Settlement to the Plans and, concurring with the Court’s finding that the Settlement is reasonable in light of the likelihood of full recovery, the risks and costs of litigation, and the value of the claims forgone, has authorized the Settlement on behalf of the Plans, as documented in the report filed with this Court.

10. The Court has duly considered and rejected any objections to the Settlement that were filed.

APPROVAL OF TERMS OF ALLOCATION

11. This Court hereby approves the Terms of Allocation as being a fair, reasonable and adequate settlement and compromise of the Litigation in accordance with all applicable laws, including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and directs that the Terms of Allocation be consummated and implemented in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof.

15. Without affecting the finality of this Final Order in any way, this Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction: (a) over the implementation, administration and consummation of the Settlement Stipulation; (b) over the Litigation until the Final Order contemplated hereby has become effective and each and every act agreed to be performed by the Parties to the Stipulation shall have been performed pursuant to the Stipulation; and (c) over all Parties to the Litigation and all Parties to the Stipulation for the purpose of taking such other actions as may be necessary to conclude and administer this settlement and to implement and enforce the Stipulation.

TERMINATION OF SETTLEMENT

16. In the event that the Effective Date does not occur, or the Stipulation is terminated in accordance with its terms and provisions, then this Final Order shall be rendered null and void and be vacated, and the Stipulation and all orders entered and releases delivered in connection therewith by this Court shall be rendered null and void.
